Alternative/Replacement Products/Solutions

Replacement products are available as per the table below with the specified limitations. The replacement products may not be interoperable with the models being “discontinued” by this notice.

Model Number	Suggested Replacement Model Number*	Alternative Model(s) to Consider
OPA65R-BU4BA-K	OPA65R-BU4DA-K

* A “Suggested Replacement Model”, when offered, is considered to be a “direct replacement” to the prior model but may have some notable changes from the original. CCI strongly advises all customers to verify the Suggested Replacement Model’s equivalency for their specific use case.

 Any and all “Alternative Model(s)” listed for “Consideration” as a replacement to the Discontinued Model, are provided as a convenience to users. Please carefully review suitability for purpose as mechanical and electrical specifications, while similar, may not always meet design constraints.
